

"A New Home for Liberty"

Human Rights, Slavery, and the Creation of West Virginia

A Dramatic Living History Program

Sponsored By The J.R. Clifford Project & West Virginia University

One hundred and fifty years ago, brave Mountaineers, black and white, slave and free, risked their lives and fortunes to create a new home for liberty in the United States - the State of West Virginia. This program tells the dramatic and exciting story of how famous state-makers and ordinary citizens grappled with the tough issues of human rights and slavery as the Civil War raged around them - and how these heroes added the West Virginia star to "Old Glory!"

Help celebrate West Virginia's 150th Birthday!

Enjoy vivid and dramatic scenes from West Virginia's creation!

Commentary by distinguished historians! Great music! A talented community cast! Family-friendly and suitable for all ages!

Granville Hall
1837 - 1934

Carter G. Woodson
1875 - 1950

J.R. Clifford
1848 - 1933

Gordon Battelle
1814 - 1862

Wednesday April 6th, 2011 - 7:30PM

Erickson Alumni Center

West Virginia University

Morgantown, WV

Free admission and parking. Reception after the performance.

For directions and more information: admin@jrclifford.org (304) 345 - 7663

